

DIAZ TURNS AGAINST HUERTAS AND MATTERS MEN ARE DESERTING
In All Except Three States of the Mexican Republic Revolution Rages With Gun and Torch

GLOOMY PICTURE LAID BEFORE U. S. SENATORS
Charles Hine, President of Mexican West Shore Railroad, Appears Before Foreign Relations Committee

BY MARY PHAGAN
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5.—Only three states in all the republic of Mexico are partly free from the ravages of bands of revolutionists and murderers. The people, apparently, wherever they go, regard President Huerta as a murderer and it has become apparent, even to the supporters, that he can never rule the country. Felix Diaz, who made Huerta president, has turned against him, and is providing a formidable army the present administration. At 70, he is now in the prime of his life. His wife, who is a native of the United States, is a former Virginian, who is now grandmistress of the West. She is the daughter of the late Senator from Virginia, who she is now grandmistress of the West. She is the daughter of the late Senator from Virginia, who she is now grandmistress of the West.

OFFICIALS CONFIDENTIAL
The advice of the state department is that the revolutionists are not yet in a position to make any serious attempt to overthrow the government. The revolutionists are not yet in a position to make any serious attempt to overthrow the government.
