

LABOR REFORMED BY MILL MEN, MARY KILWELLY

and Other Southern Features Prevented From Being by Cotton Manufacturers, He Says

GEORGIA'S ELEVEN LAW "BARBARISM"

of Southern States

onal Child Labor

Speaks at World's Citizenship Meet

(Associated Press.)
New York, July 1.—The cotton industry of four southern states and the Carolina and Georgia mills and with having prevented the passage of the child labor law in those states from repealing laws which would child labor in the mills, in an address by A. J. McKelvey of Washington, D. C., secretary for the southern branch of the national child labor league, Mr. McKelvey's address delivered at the national conference on child labor and industry in Philadelphia, which opened here today.

Mr. McKelvey charged the textile manufacturers of Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Tennessee and North Carolina with having prevented the passage of the child labor law in those states from repealing laws which would child labor in the mills, in an address by A. J. McKelvey of Washington, D. C., secretary for the southern branch of the national child labor league, Mr. McKelvey's address delivered at the national conference on child labor and industry in Philadelphia, which opened here today.

Victims of Fall

General Bennett H. Young, president of the Blue and Gray Old-Time War Veterans, today paid a tribute to the memory of the 55,000 Confederate soldiers who died in the Civil War. He spoke at a meeting of the organization in the city of Atlanta, Georgia.

CONFEDERATE CHIEF PAYS A TRIBUTE TO BETT'S BOURG'S DEAD

General Bennett H. Young, president of the Blue and Gray Old-Time War Veterans, today paid a tribute to the memory of the 55,000 Confederate soldiers who died in the Civil War. He spoke at a meeting of the organization in the city of Atlanta, Georgia.

THE HORT SKYScraper

A new view of the handsome West's building on West Peachtree street, work on which is progressing rapidly.

Wife Mends Notification in the

of Formal Declaration, the Greek Precipitate Struggle, Poland, They Say

SEVARIANS JOIN GREEKS AGAINST FOR AT ISLIP

Reported Breaches of Treaty Cause Greece to Take Offensive—Greece Consequences Predicted

Eight Bulgars at Islip

LONDON, July 1.—Eight Bulgars were arrested at Islip, England, on the charge of being in possession of arms and explosives for the purpose of carrying out a bomb attack on the British government.

RIOTOUS REBELS Drive Women To Kill Selves

MEXICO CITY, July 1.—Forty women of the better class have committed suicide in the city of Mexico today, according to a report received here yesterday. The women, said the report, became desperate because of their treatment by the victorious rebels.

GRAND JURY Declines to Indict COLBY for Assault

Animal Keeper Boyd, of the Grant Park Zoo, Arrived in Atlanta

NEGRO NURSE Holds Baby As Bait to Tease Ligness

Animal Keeper Boyd, of the Grant Park Zoo, Arrived in Atlanta

ANONYMOUS NOTE TELLS MIXON OF LIQUOR LOBBY

Senator J. T. Mixon, of the Thirty-seventh district, chairman of the prohibition committee and leader of the prohibition forces in the senate, is in receipt of an anonymous letter, which he is assumed to have received, in which he is urged to maintain a lobby here.

RUSSIA SENDS SUMMONS TO BALKANS FOR CONFERENCE

VIENNA, Austria, July 1.—Austrian newspapers said today that the Russian minister at Berlin, Baron de Buzarewsky, had been instructed to urge the Balkan states to attend a conference to be held in St. Petersburg.

DIVER SEARCHES RIVER FOR BODIES OF BOYS

LAWRENCE, Mass., July 1.—The search for possible additional victims of the explosion which killed two boys in the city of Lawrence today by a diver, who explored the river bottom, and by boatsmen who dragged the stream, it was believed that no more bodies would be found.

The Turn of the Year

Faces the prospect of a crop growing, building, new building, enterprises expanding and breaking bounds in every direction.

LATEST NOTE WASHINGTON

July 1.—The California state work on the new constitution is well advanced. The committee on the constitution is expected to report to the legislature in a few days.

MAKE JULY WORTH $1,000 IN GOLD TO YOU!

Enter the Journal's $7,000 Booklovers' Campaign Now and Bring Home the First Prize

THE BOOKLOVERS' GAME IS THE GREAT HOME GAME WITH NO DISAGREABLE VOTING OR BIDDING FEATURES

The Journal Has Published Two Prize Pictures, Each Representing the $1,000.00 Book.

FIVE CENTS AINT FIVE CENTS A START FOR FIREWORKS & FIREWORKS

Several days ago Senator Mixon gave the Journal an interview, in which he stated that it had been brought to his attention that the liquor lobby had established a numerous and effective lobby in the city of Atlanta.

Attentive on Exhibition

CHARLESTON, S. C., July 1.—The Atlanta exposition is being the most successful in the history of the South. The party which arrived here on Friday, July 1, was the largest in the history of the exposition.

REWARD COMMITTEE

Following are the names of the members of the reward committee for the capture of the man who is believed to be the author of the anonymous letter to Senator Mixon.

CONGRESSIONAL AND LEGISLATIVE

SWART, chairman. HARRIS, chairman. CONNORS, chairman. BERRY, chairman. TAYLOR, chairman. MCGONNELL, chairman. BUCKLEY, chairman. HUIE, chairman. HARRIS, chairman. CONNORS, chairman. BERRY, chairman. TAYLOR, chairman. MCGONNELL, chairman. BUCKLEY, chairman. HUIE, chairman.

