SALTS OF KIDNEYS OR BLADDER BOTHER Harmless to flush Kidneys and neutralize irritating acids. Kidney and bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains, causing irritation, excitation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The salt in this constant drain, the water passes acetous with a scalding sensation and a very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, it is really one of the most amiable ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of uric acid salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Uric acid is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subjected to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Uric acid salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatsoever. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble. (Adv.)

ZERO WEATHER IN MANY STATES

ORANGE CROP SUFFERS FROM SUDDEN CHANGE

Blizzard Not Likely to Loosen Grip on Georgia for Several Days

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The entire central and eastern sections of the country are today experiencing hard, freezing weather with prospects that it will continue for twenty-four hours or more.

From the Rocky mountains to the Atlantic coast decided drops in the temperature were reported last night and early today. Even in the south reports indicate a general cold wave and it is feared that in many places the orange crop will be damaged.

In New York the temperature had dropped to 10 above zero early today and weather forecasters predicted still colder weather during the day. In the southwest below zero temperatures were common last night, the lowest, 20 degrees below, being registered at Devils Lake, N. D. At White River, Canada, 29 degrees below zero was reported.

Other low temperatures early today were 14 degrees above at Cleveland, Ohio; 10 below zero at Quebec, Canada; and 10 below zero at Chicago, probably will give way to a rise in temperature before daylight.

DELTA IN NEW YORK. While but one death was recorded in New York last night, much suffering resulted from the extreme cold, and 2,000 men and women sought shelter at municipal heating houses and other organizations. At 2 o'clock this morning 1,500 men and boys given beds at dispensaries in New York, the municipal heating houses.

The coldest night of the winter in the Adirondacks was reported, the thermometer registering 14 degrees below at Utica and 21 below at Tupper Lake, N. Y. In Canada heavy snowfalls are reported, fourteen inches having fallen at Montreal, where the thermometer registered 7 degrees below zero. Hundreds of unemployed in Montreal have been given work removing the snow.

Several More Days of Cold Are Promised for Georgia. Monday night and Atlanta colder since early in December, and predictions at the weather bureau state that this recent chilly weather would continue for several days longer.

While Sunday night was the coldest so far for 1914 with a minimum temperature of 23 degrees, Monday night went it just a trifle lower with a minimum of 23. This was the lowest since a cold wave in December, when the mercury fluctuated around 20 below zero several nights, reaching its lowest of the winter, 24 degrees, on the night of December 9.

The forecast to late Tuesday night and Wednesday. There will be a heavy frost, especially in the southern portion of Georgia, and that cold wave will continue in the north and that the temperature of the cold wave will still be hanging around 25 and 30 degrees, with occasional opinions voiced at the office of the bureau.

Power Co. Heat Charges Declared Extortionate

Rate for Heating Library and Police Station Raised—City's Bill for Six Months Totals $1,650

That the Georgia Railway and Power company is charging the city too much for steam heat in the city hall, the Carnegie library, the police station and other municipal buildings, was the opinion expressed Monday afternoon by members of the finance committee of council.

The question came up when J. M. Shearer, the custodian of city hall, submitted his budget of expenses necessary to operate the city hall during 1914.

One of the items read: "Steam heat, $1,650." Councilman A. H. Colquhoun, of the fifth ward, wheeled around in his chair and gave vent to a loud exclamation of astonishment.

"You don't mean to say your steam heat alone costs that much, do you?" "That's what it costs," said Shearer, "and that covers only six months of the year at that, because we don't use steam heat in the city hall."

Councilman W. P. Farthing, of the fourth ward, spoke up and said steam heat in the library was recently raised from a flat rate of $100 per month to $117 per month.

"And the police station's bill was recently raised from $141 per month to more than $350," stated another member of the committee.

Alfred M. H. Kealey, of the second ward, ventured the opinion that the city could heat isolated plants in the city hall, library and police station by the use of hot water radiators in a few years—at such rates for steam heat as $100 per month.

The committee then began to discuss isolated plants and a report of the discussion was that all agreed to take up the question later and obtain bids as to the cost of radiating operating, depreciation, etc.

GLASSES FITTED Let us fit your eyes in the new "FITS-U" eye glasses, mounting, stylish, light, neat and stays on—comfortable. We will take pleasure in showing this mounting and explaining the points of particular merit. Fletcher Co. Optician, 14 Whitehall street, Atlanta.

SOAP ON YOUR HAIR CAUSES DANDRUFF; SCALP GETS DRY, THEN HAIR FALLS OUT

Girls! Get a 25-cent bottle and try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse"

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dandruff. Better still, use soap as usual, but apply Danderine instead of a "Danderine Hair Cleanse." Just rub a cloth with Danderine and rub it carefully through your hair, taking one strand at a time. This will remove dirt and excessive oil, in a few moments you will be amazed your hair will not only be clean, but it will be wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possess an incomparable softness and lustre. Besides cleansing and invigorating the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; stimulates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair, preventing the hair from what fresh showers of rain and sun-drops do for vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them, and instead of the life-producing properties cause the hair to grow thick, abundant and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 25-cent bottle of Klorox's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it. (Adv.)

THE ADVERTISING COLUMNS of The Journal today carry as complete a news-report of the stores as the news columns carry of the events of the world today. There's very little in this newspaper EXCEPT NEWS. VIEWS are printed, of course, when they have news value, or timely importance. And it would not be a complete newspaper if its "bargain news" was not timed to the hour, and complete. For homes, nowadays, are managed in a BUSINESS WAY. Buying for the homes is, strictly, a BUSINESS MATTER, to be planned, thought about. The planning and the thinking are a part of the evening routine in most homes—a part of the housewife's service to those for whom she is making the home. SILVER LAKE ESTATES PLANS TO BE PUSHED

Oglethorpe University Is Now Assured and Development Will Be Rapid

With reference to the plan for the development of Silver Lake Estates, of Oglethorpe University, soon to be built on Peachtree Road, is a part of L. P. Butterfield's makes the following statement:

Now that Oglethorpe University at Silver Lake Estates is assured beyond all question, we have returned with double assurance to the completion of our plans for the development of Silver Lake Estates as a high-class and attractive residence community.

With Oglethorpe University in the balance we temporarily laid aside our plans as to Silver Lake Estates, in large measure, and turned the whole force of our organization back to the university project. We feel that we may have been fortunate in the fact that our efforts helped to secure Oglethorpe for Atlanta.

Oglethorpe has been secured; that is settled. Now for Silver Lake Estates. We have, as is well known, offered the public an opportunity to join us on a partnership basis in the development of this magnificent property, and they have responded as abundantly upon that basis to the extent of more than $100,000, actually subscribed and first payment made. These have come with us because there was any positive assurance as to Oglethorpe.

Silver Lake Estates will be organized with $400,000 subscribed, and based upon inquiries which have come to us, we have no question that the additional $100,000 will be taken within the next few weeks.

Participation in Silver Lake Estates was not upon a basis of 112 on Monday, January 12, and will soon be further advanced to 112 without notice. This advance was made for two reasons: The first place there has been no real advance in the hands of the subscribers through the territory adjacent to the tract which was offered by Oglethorpe University. In the second place, it has been decided to hold the investment of Silver Lake Estates within the actual amount of $400,000, and this will give additional value to every dollar invested there.

Whereas, then, as stated, there will not be any change whatsoever in Silver Lake Estates plans, each subscriber will receive his and his share of the property, and will participate in the future profits of the partnership, which will be increased as a result of reducing the land investment, and the terms of payment as a result of the advance.

Notice of Silver Lake Estates organization meeting will be sent out on February 1, 1914. Less than three months remain for those who have not yet come with us to join us in Silver Lake Estates to act.

Bradley Embraces Daughter, Held With Jersey Millionaire in Mobile

MOBILE, Ala., Jan. 12.—Dellah Bradley, seventeen years old, who is here in connection with the arrest of her father, Mr. Foster, forty-two years old, wealthy citizen of Brower's Mill, N. J., charged with violating the Mann and Elmer laws, today said she would return home with her mother, Henry Bradley. Mr. Bradley arrived here yesterday.

Mr. Bradley met Fred M. Jones shortly after he had embraced his daughter. They did not speak. "I want to see him punished, but there is no animosity in my heart," said Mr. Bradley.

Foster's attorneys had not announced early this morning their decision as to whether or not preliminary examination before the United States commissioner would be waived tomorrow.

But when once Mrs. Craigie was started on her fight, the division of the Atlanta Woman's Suffrage association, their opponent, the church, is not actively organized for the cause. Mrs. Craigie is chairman of the church work of the National Woman's Suffrage association and knows where the office is.

At Tuesday night's rally, one of the largest the local suffragists have held in some time, Mrs. Craigie will speak on "The Citizen Mother." Other speakers will be S. H. Marple, president of the Georgia Federation of Labor; Rev. E. H. Hatcher, pastor of the Moore Memorial church, and Mrs. Anna Pletcher of Chatham, England. Mrs. McClelland will preside.

Why do you still wear those bifocals with seams, when you can have a pair of bifocals with no seams, and which will give you a better vision than any other pair of bifocals you can buy? The answer is simple. You are not getting the best of your money. You are getting the best of your money. You are getting the best of your money.

COUNTY POLITICS OPEN UP WATERS AGAIN TO SEEK PLACE ON COUNTY BOARD

Chairman Announces He Will Ask Re-election From Country District

Will C. Waters, present chairman of the board of Fulton county commissioners, whose term of office expires at the end of this year, has announced he will be a candidate for re-election at the coming primary.

Commissioner Waters declares he is going to stand for the election from the country districts. Four members of the county board are elected from the county at large and one member is elected from the country districts. Charles Smith is at present the commissioner from the country, and his term expires with that of Mr. Waters. Mr. Smith has made no announcement, but Waters has declared flatly and finally that he will stand from the country district.

"Four years ago," said Waters, "I was logically the man to run from the country district, but was persuaded not to make the point and so I ran from the county at large. This time, however, I am going to stand flatly as a candidate from the country district."

Mr. Smith and probably several others are expected to run for the two vacancies on the county commission at the coming primary, and it will be up to the various candidates, in a way to pick their opponents.

SELECTION ABOUT BOARD.

Although in making his statement Mr. Waters said nothing about the election of the county board his announcement for re-election almost immediately toward the action of the majority of the board, which is expected to be taken on Monday, he denominated Thomas J. Donaldson, superintendent of public works, and recognizing the whole board over the strenuous opposition of Commissioner Waters and Anderson.

The denotation of Captain Donaldson has caused a furor in the county administration not equalled before in years. Many of the minor details of the organization must be worked out by the public service committee of which Mr. Waters, Anderson and Winn, a majority favorable to Donaldson, are members. Unless they find some way to in a measure return the official's shore power, it is said his resignation is probable.

The public service committee, which meets next Saturday, is expected to take the action of board Monday, and it is possible the board's majority, Waters and Anderson, may take the whole matter to the courts. The bookkeeping of the public works department, Major Jones, was legislated out of his job and the action became effective January 1. It is said, but he has been working for twelve days of this year. Whether he can be paid for the twelve days is a question which has not been decided and this may be the basis for some action by the majority, which was taken by surprise by the suddenness of the motion to reorganize the department.

Giant Black From Pike County Can't Get in Door Unless He Takes Off Shoes and Crawls

When George Bell alighted from the train at the Terminal station Monday afternoon and waded his way five footward his path of progress was attended by much pushing and crowding; many cringes of necks and frenzied exclamations shouting pop-eyed.

But a little thing like a crowd doesn't worry George. Being only eight feet tall, tipping the scales at a trifling over 350 pounds, ranging 8-foot-1 from one size 13 shoe, it is only to be expected that his appearance would excite some comment. Add to that the fact that he is an black as the pit, and you see why the people stare and look.

Not that they do down in Pike county. George is an old citizen there, being brought into this world at Zebulon, Ga., just twenty-two years ago. His father is just six feet two, his mother five feet eight, and his brothers and sisters can get into a house without knocking a toe through the roof.

George is the ex-tenant of Ringling Bros. circus, and he is Atlanta for the purpose of exhibiting his Herculean charms at a freak show at 40 Marietta street.

When George came down Forsyth street three women almost fell out of the sixth story of the Austell building with surprise and a man rushed out of a barbershop with half his face lathered and half shaved.

"What makes you so big, George?" he asked the giant. "Law boss, I guess," grinned George. "What's eat?" "Just what other folks eat. But Ah

250 Women's Suits Will Hurry Out Tomorrow Impelled by This Lowest Price of the Season

$15.00

Regular $25 to $65 Suits

A Sale Without a Counterpart

We believe women needing suits will consider this the most important event we have ever invited them to share.

Its wonderful attractiveness is in the Facts and Figures presented---eloquent of opportunity for saving.

The Stated Value of the Suits Will Bear the Closest Scrutiny

It is a sale different from any we have ever held. The suits are all thoroughly desirable, and the prices lower than the word "Sale" usually means.

We love to give great values as much as you love to get them. It is a part of our duty to you to sell goods as low as we can and to quote special prices whenever possible.

But it is our greater duty to see to it that neither we nor you shall be tempted by a low price to buy anything that isn't worth having.

The true measure of a "bargain" is quality---not price. It's what you get---not what you pay---that counts.

Judge this sale accordingly when we say it is one of the greatest opportunities we have ever offered you.

Some of the suits in this clearing are the most beautiful models of the season---splendid, exclusive styles; distinguished in the highest degree.

There is hardly a limit to materials represented in these suits. And almost every color-tone that Fashion has approved.

The opportunity for buying suits of such elegance and good style is rarely---if ever---presented, and there are not many who will want to miss it.

There are two hundred and fifty suits in the sale, which will be a quick one---a Record Breaker---as easily foretold in this unusually low pricing---

LITTLE STORIES FOR BEDTIME

(Copyright, 1913, by J. G. Lloyd)

After the Red Squirrel was disgraced with his wife and all his neighbors, and with the world in general, which is to say that Chatterer was very much put out about something.

In the first place it was filled with anger, and anger, you know, will take all the joy and pleasantness out of anything.

And then Chatterer was mortified. He was both angry and mortified because Sammy had had to have smarter wits than he had.

So all the rest of the day he thought and thought, and the more he thought the more unhappy he grew.

Right away he felt so much better in his mind that he had a good run along the old stone wall and then turned in for a good night's sleep.

What Annie Rittenhouse Says

Abilities of fur are now placed on the same level as pink silk stockings.

NEW YORK.—One sees less of fur in this city now than for several seasons in the form of large garments.

But one sees much of it in the form of trimming. Children have always shown it on their occasional frocks.

And their elders rarely trimmed gowns and hats with it. Today they do both. Some of the new bridesmaid's frocks of white satin and tulle are admirably touched off with strips of the white peltry.

One model that caused much favorable comment at a recent home wedding had a narrow skirt of the satin with a seam down the front and back, a slight opening at the hem of each seam, and above the knees a facing tulle edged with ermine, two inches wide.

The bodice was surplice of the satin fringing as far as the bust and then of tulle over the shoulders. The latter fabric was steered by wide shoulder straps of white chiffon cloth which is a good trick to know, as many women do not care for only the tulle above the bust, and those who do not always manage to keep it from tearing away under the least pressure.

The giraffe of the gown was of ermine and it was a pair of braides that went over the shoulders and crossed in the front and back. To give a touch of color, which is so necessary to a white gown, there was a rose at the waist of deep pink velvet sewn with crystal. The hat of lace had a bridge of ermine and another pink rose wired to stand up at the back.

From the sketch sent over from Paris shows a gown trimmed with ermine in the same fashion we are using here.

The artist caught it at the opera the opening night that Paris was given for the first time in Paris.

The skirt is of black velvet draped only at one side into pleats and opening at the other to the side showing a petticoat of flesh colored chiffon over which the edges are loosely tacked. The belt here is of ermine with the braides of the same fur. Mark this point well, for it is the touch of the year to have peltry holding up the giraffe. The bodice

Smooth, Hairless Skin Follows This Treatment

(Toilet Tip) Among the bare beauty helps, none perhaps is more important than that which will free the skin from obnoxious hairy growths.

A simple method to rid the skin of unwanted hair is to rub a paste by mixing watered down talcum with water and applying for about two minutes, then rubbing off with it comes every bit of hair and when the skin is washed, it will be firm and free from blemish. Result is more satisfactory if the detache is bought in an original package.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Logansport, Ind.—"My baby was over a year old and I bloated till I was a burden to myself. I suffered from female trouble so I could not stand on my feet and I felt like millions of needles were pricking me all over. At last my doctor told me that all that would save me was an operation, but this I refused. I told my husband to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I would try it before I would submit to any operation. He did so and I improved right along. I am now doing all my work and feeling fine.

"I hope other suffering women will try your Compound. I will recommend it to all I know."—Mrs. DANIEL D. E. DAVIS, 110 Franklin St., Logansport, Ind. Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the power to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner? If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

METHODISTS OF MACON WILL HOLD CONFERENCE

Bishop Candler Will Be Invited to Preside Over Church Extension Rally

MACON, Ga., Jan. 13.—A general conference of the local Methodist ministers, the laymen and most prominent members of the Methodist churches of the city will be held here about the middle of next week. The church extension rally will be observed. Bishop Warren A. Candler, of Atlanta, will be invited to preside over the session, which was the proposed plan of Rev. J. P. McFerrin, presiding elder of the city.

The purpose of the meeting will be that of church extension. In the suburban section of the city many new churches are needed, and even in the older residential sections the old churches are inadequate to accommodate the church members and the visitors on special occasions. All the necessary plans will be made for the erection of several new churches and the improvement of several of the older institutions.

Details for the meeting are now being worked out.

Hirsig Will Probably Win Out in Nashville Ball Club Row

LITTLE PAL—WELL, DID HE BREAK HIS RESOLUTION?

—BY LEO

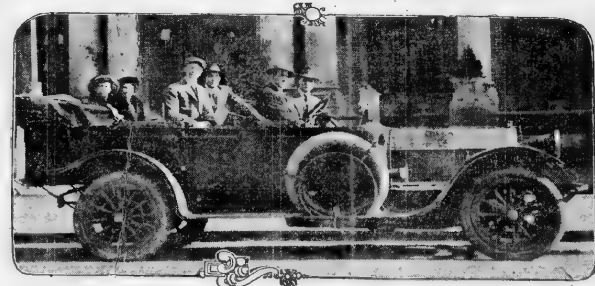

Nashville Row To Be Settled Tuesday Night

Court Decision in Favor of President Hirsig Gives His Faction the Upper Hand and Probably Will Result in the Ousting of Manager Bill Schwartz

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 12.—The annual meeting of the Nashville baseball club will be held tonight and in view of the factional fight that has been in progress in the board of directors, special interest attaches to it. A board of directors, president and other officers will be elected. The board of directors elects the manager. A dissolution yesterday afternoon of an injunction restraining President W. Hirsig from voting twenty-five shares of stock, which he claimed to have purchased, has given the Hirsig faction apparent control of the situation. There is some ambivalence of sentiment as to this is taken to mean the deposing of Schwartz as manager.

Plough Through Muddy Roads for Record; Birmingham to Atlanta in Just 13 Hours

Party of Birmingham farmers, whose car turned over in a ditch without injury to anyone or damage to the machine. Those seated in the car, from left to right, are Mrs. W. H. Kettig, Birmingham; Mrs. B. A. Jones, Atlanta; W. H. Kettig, Jr., of Birmingham; George Wilson, of Atlanta; L. E. Duncan, of Birmingham; and B. V. Stodghill, of the John M. Smith company's Pierce-Arrow agency, Atlanta.

Through muddy roads that were as difficult as anything ever tackled by a plow, a party of tourists from Birmingham made their way to Atlanta in thirteen hours' running time, arriving here covered with mud and with the report that they had overthrown and passed about six other big cars on the way. The party were W. H. Kettig, Jr., Mrs. W. H. Kettig and L. E. Duncan. "We slipped into a ditch on our way here," said Mr. Kettig, Thursday, "and took us seven hours to get the car back on the road. Nobody was hurt, and the car wasn't damaged even slightly. The edge of the road just gave way—said down we went, on the side." The car, a Pierce-Arrow seven-passenger "48," is one of the magnificent new 1914 models. The John M. Smith company, Atlanta agents for the Pierce-Arrow, reported that the car is in perfect condition despite its hard gait.

A dinner was given in his honor, attended by men of high financial standing in the community. President Gilmore outlined the work done in the formation of the league in the various cities and stated that its affairs were in a highly satisfactory state. "We shall have no trouble in getting all the players we want," said President Gilmore when questioned as to the report that the league was turning to Cuba in the event of a strike. Mr. Gilmore left last night for Pittsburgh.

A resolution that the powers of the executive committee of the national governing body be limited in awarding tournaments will be presented at the meeting, it is said.

STRAY SHOTS AT SPORT TARGETS

BY OWEN BROWN

PUBLIC GOLF LINKS NEEDED. Dan Carey, manager of parks for the city, has hit on a popular scheme in his plan to establish a public golf course. Interest in the game of drive and putt is rapidly increasing all over the country, and there is today a strong demand for such a course here.

There are at present four courses in the city, but these are the property of clubs, and as such are not open to the public generally. At the same time, there are a great many who play and enjoy the game, but who can not belong to these clubs for different reasons.

The plan suggested by Manager Carey anticipates a three-hole course at Piedmont park. Such a course would surely be welcomed, but it would be ill better if the course could be made to comprise at least five holes. In this connection, it may be stated that this property offers a good opportunity for some local philanthropist.

GIVE THE GROWN-UPS A PLAYGROUND. Various plans have been conceived and executed toward providing playgrounds for the boys and girls, but the grown-ups must content themselves with a stroll about the parks, a baseball game, or a swim during the summer months. Further than this the city has nothing to offer in the line of outdoor recreation. A public golf course would, therefore, go a long way toward providing a form of outdoor sport for numbers who have no opportunity for such at present. Atlanta should have a public golf course.

DONOHUE PAYS A VISIT. Our good friend Mike Donohue, who handles the athletic department of Auburn, breezed into the city a night or so ago. Mike accompanied the Auburn basketball team here, and saw his charges, rather impromptly, engaged up by the Athletic club here.

You see, he had in his line-up two football celebrities in Big Babe Taylor and Steed. In an absent-minded way, Taylor occasionally forgot that the game was basketball, and when he did, opposing athletes spun around in a daze for a brief period. As we are not mistaken, Mike was seeing visions of things likely to happen some nine or ten months hence, when the call will be "trot down and ten yards to go," with Taylor leading the attack. If you have ever lapped the physique of Mr. Taylor, you can appreciate the fact that such must have been a pleasing vision for Mike.

NOVELTY IN WOODENWARE. Barney Peltz, former barber for the Browns and Yankees, who hails from Farmington, Mo., has discovered a pitcher with a wooden leg who, he claims, is a wonder. If he measures up to Barney's advance claims, he is going to be something of a novelty. We have seen on several occasions, what looked like unmistakable evidence of saw-mill scenery on a ball field, and it wasn't in the form of a bat either. However, we have never seen it carried below the waist-line.

Barrow Roasts Federal League

Head of International League Accuses New Organization of Unfair Fighting

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Edward Barrow, president of the International league, in a statement concerning the proposed invasion of the Federal league of three international league cities—Terre Haute, Baltimore and Buffalo—declared that the new league's leaders were not fighting fair and predicted that "their tactics will bring them grief." "In the first place," Mr. Barrow said, "they are trying to manufacture a major league when they never can come one step closer to it. They have a minor league players to a team, but they will not make them a major league. They have a minor league circuit—Terre Haute, Baltimore and Buffalo turn out good crowds, but they do not turn out major league crowds. "The players who jumped to the Federal league were dissatisfied with their employment. They were dissatisfied with their organized baseball long enough to leave the International league, but they are not offered as much a part of their contract as their salary. "I will say that the International league will get these fellows to a finish in any of our cities where they intend to place teams. So far I have not

HANK AND KNOBS--THE CHINK PRINTS HIS ANSWER

---BY FARREN

THE SPORTLIGHT BY GRANTLAND RICE

WHY NOT?
Rhymer Byron was a rube; Shakespeare often hit the bottle; Burns was always on the drink; With some liquid down his throat; Po, you picked right and day, 'No, you kid' says Vitell's own crew. And the same is not a far cry; Goldsmith never had a cent; Shelley stamped his board and looting; Homer never said his rent; Cp and down the highway dodging; Some old dunch across the slope; Little coin—but game to blow—Some to be from all this dope I, too, oughter to be poet.

Jack Johnson still insists that he is champion of the world. So he is. As for champion what of the world we give you two guesses, albeit bogey entities you to only one.

All the Federal league has to do in St. Louis to collect most of the patronage is to produce a ball club capable of finishing in sixth place. If it finished much higher the populace there would probably drop down from the stadium stool.

THE RITCHIE MYSTERY.
The amount of kidding, joshing, goofing, paning, etc., which Willie Ritchie has received of late for not fighting opponent hasn't affected Ritchie's set determination.

White Sox have been studying the habits and methods of the kangaroo club of late, so as to have the proper jumping form when the Federal league hangs out a luscious bait to leap for. This may be merely another water league rumor but it is ordered for what it is worth.

ANOTHER RUMOR.
It is reported from Australia that members of the Giants and White Sox have been studying the habits and methods of the kangaroo club of late, so as to have the proper jumping form when the Federal league hangs out a luscious bait to leap for. This may be merely another water league rumor but it is ordered for what it is worth.

Expense is one thing and wanton waste is something else. For practically the same reason the Feds have decided not to establish a National Commission. Not with wild lists at $4 a quart.

THEM AND NOW.
As we understand it now the Dodgers won't miss Tinker in the slightest. Just as if Col. Ebbetts was in the habit of pegging $25,000 to the winds to help kill a dull afternoon.

THE YEAR OF THE TOSS-UP.
Heretofore we have always been able to extract a number of heated opinions from baseball camp followers as to the ultimate winner in each of the two big leagues. But so far as the National is concerned, 1914 is a leading exception. Most of those we have talked with are willing to concede an edge in all its details to the Athletics in the American. But the National has been guessing. The dope upon this circuit is figured strictly as a toss-up among New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, with Chicago and Boston furnished an outside chance.

THE PSYCHIC ELEMENT.
Just as present Coach Yost of Michigan, is deeply interested in psychic lore, especially as it affects the transference of astral bodies from one spot to another, so Hank is.

Groh Passes Up Feds; Signs With Cincinnati
CINCINNATI, Jan. 12.—(By Associated Press.) Second Base- man Groh, of the Cincinnati National League club, yesterday signed a contract to play with Cincinnati for the next three years. Groh, who was drafted from the Omaha club, Secretary Foster announced that he had declined to join the Federal League club.

Johnson Nearly Caused Trouble At Cincinnati Meet

By His Attack on President Fultz of the Players' Fraternity, American League Leader Came Near Causing Disruption Between Club Owners and Players

AT A dinner given to Governor Tamm during the recent meeting of the national commission in Cincinnati, at which were present several members of the committee from the Players' Fraternity, Hancock Johnson, master pitcher, and several high mortars of the American league, came near causing a bomb- shell into the peaceful negotiations being conducted between manager and players.

The toast, which all but sent the whole layout up in the air, came as a result of a statement by B. Johnson that all would have been well, if players would have arisen, but for the meddling of the lawyer-president of the Fraternity, David L. Fultz. Members of the Fraternity felt confident that Fultz is on the square, and that he is trying to obtain a more conciliatory attitude for them as possible. Hence they were surprised to find Johnson's statement so timely intervention by head heads eyed the day.

Had this outbreak been allowed to go any further, it is probable that the American league would have suffered. So far the Federal has practically kept heads off of the American league players. King Cole, who was slated to play with Chicago, has withdrawn, and the only man signed up so far, information concerning negotiations with several others has leaked out, but so far nothing has come of them.

No doubt the Federal realizes that certain factors within the National league have pulled off a feat calculated to hurt the older league in the eyes of the public. The feat is to have secured a raid on National league players to prove more popular with the fans. But if B. Hancock cuts loose with many more cracks like the one about Fultz, he is going to get his organization and with the boys who produce his merchandise every day on the diamonds. No doubt many of these men are going to stick through a sense of loyalty, but such conversation won't prove very conducive to the sport.

The trouble is that Hank is a statesman and he is not a statesman. He has held the National league players in a vice-grip, and has outperformed subordinate with the result that the National league has been driven to the ranks of the American league. For instance, George Stallings is persona non grata to B. Hancock, and Stallings doesn't find things very pleasant in his league. Also McAllister's recent stay up according to Johnson's idea, and Jimmie out of the fold.

But it is one thing to discipline a bad actor, or to execute a traitor when you have the rank and file of the army back of you, and it is another thing to club out the whole clan single-handed, when there is no help nearby to be called in. A game stand is to be admired, but discretion still continues to reign as the better part of woe.

IT'S HARDLY THAT EAR.
Jack Johnson has been accused of many things, but men in modern history have been accused, and persecuted, but it remained for the country of Bulgaria to charge the Negro of offense to him. In short, Bulgaria accuses the Negro of being the champion of starting the Civil War.

Johnson recently boxed an exhibition in a Pittsburgh city and this advance notice appeared in a certain newspaper:
"Jack Johnson is the man who received $100,000 for whipping Jim Jeffries in the prize ring and was directly responsible for the Civil War in the United States between the blacks and the whites. The terrible boxer post-tively will appear in the flesh and the box."

Left Hook to the Jaw in Seventh Round Ends Fast Fight Between Welterweights

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Mike Gibbons, of San Francisco, in the seventh round of their ten-round match here last night. The decisive blow, a right hook to the jaw, came at the end of one minute and thirty-eight seconds fighting in the round. The men are middle-weight.

Gibbons weighed in at 155 1/2 pounds and McAllister at 150. McAllister outpointed his opponent in the first four rounds. Gibbons got to his man in the fifth, landing left hooks to the jaw and effective rights to the body, but McAllister's work at low range evened up the round.

Gibbons repeatedly hooked McAllister on the jaw in the sixth and McAllister showed signs of being hurt. In the final round Gibbons caught the Californian with a heavy right cross to the jaw. He followed this up with a bombardment of lefts and rights and ended the contest with a hard right hook to the point of the jaw.

Ebbetts Still After Tinker

Brooklyn Owner, Despite Tinker's Federal Job, Will Mail Him Contract

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Notwithstanding the fact that Tinker has signed a contract with the Federal League, Brooklyn owner, Charles H. Ebbetts, of the Brooklyn National league club, announced yesterday that he would mail Tinker a Brooklyn club contract this week.

"In my opinion," said Ebbetts, "as far as our taking legal steps to keep Tinker from playing with the Federal League is concerned, we would have to wait until he actually begins to play before applying for an injunction. Until he does that we will not know positively that he is not going to come into Brooklyn court."

"The National league naturally is going to protect itself against the invasion of the Federal League, but I am not prepared to disclose what steps are to be taken. The most foolish thing the National league could do now would be to show its hand."
